

THE DELIGHTFUL SAUSAGE

About The Delightful Sausage

The Delightful Sausage is surreal comedy double act, formed by comedians Chris Cantrill and Amy Gledhill. Their unorthodox taken on sketch comedy and irrepressible chemistry quickly established them as rising cult favourites on the circuit.

Their 2017 Edinburgh Fringe debut, Cold Hard Cache, was called "One of the best adverts for modern alternative comedy" by Ed Fest Mag and named one of the 'Best Shows of the Fringe 2017' by The Skinny. The show transferred to the Soho Theatre and was recorded for comedy streaming service, NextUp.

About Regeneration Game

In this new show, Chris and Amy rally a downbeaten northern community in a bid to be crowned the next City of Culture. Audiences will find out what 'culture' is, who's been secreting it and why that stain won't wash.

Fresh from a belting run at the Edinburgh Fringe, the show has been featured as one of the 'Best Shows of the Fringe' by The Guardian. The Scotsman said the show is "the most grotesquely funny, inbred version of a Northern English town since The League of Gentlemen."

The Sausage are currently seeking opportunities for a 2019 tour.
